

Sinclair's decision to provide free political advertising to the republican party is wrong. Sinclair stations use public airwaves free of charge, and should use those airwaves to serve the public interest. Sinclair's flagrant disregard of fairness to the American public is very disturbing.